The Soggy Prairie Boys

Tuesday, 6/14

These local guys are a five-piece string country/bluegrass band. In 2007, they were nominated in Q106's Madison Country Music Awards for Best Local Band, and lead singer, Kodey Feiner, was nominated as Best Local Male Vocalist. They play everything from old-time bluegrass such as Hank Williams to new country like The Zac Brown Band.

Sun Prairie Community Band

Thursday, 7/7

The Sun Prairie Community Band is a volunteer organization providing performances in Sun Prairie and other surrounding communities. They are a concert band of 40-50 musicians, playing everything from traditional and contemporary concert band music, to marches, show tunes, jazz and holiday music. Members include professional musicians, students, and others who enjoy playing.

Random Maxx

Tuesday, 7/19

Milwaukee's Best Cover Band of 2012, as voted by the readers of the Shepherd Express, and a nominee of five WAMI (Wisconsin Area Music Industry) awards, Random Maxx has achieved its share of decoration, earning songwriting and performance awards from public polls, industry organizations and regional press. This 5-person band, which includes male and female vocals, is a 10-time performer at Milwaukee's Summerfest who plays anything from Johnny Cash to Taylor Swift and everything in between!

Ralph Jr. & The Blackjack Blues Band

Thursday, 8/11

Ralph Jr. and the Blackjack Blues Band is based out of Hebron, Wisconsin. Band lead, Ralph Lapetina, Jr., is a native of Chicago and played keyboards with many of the blues greats there, including Elvin Bishop and Lefty Dizz. He recorded an album with John Littlejohn and was a member of the house band at Buddy Guy's Checkerboard Lounge for three years. The band plays classic Chicago blues and seasons the show with some Memphis blues, boogie-woogie and funk.
